Salutation of the Dawn

Listen to the Exhortation of the Dawn!

Look to this Day!

For it is life, the very life of life.

In its brief course lie all the verities

And realities of your existence:

The glory of action,

The bliss of growth,

The splendor of beauty:

For yesterday is but a dream.

And tomorrow is only a vision;

But today, well lived, makes

Every yesterday a dream of happiness

And every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Look well, therefore, to this Day!

Such is the Salutation of the Dawn.

Dr. Max Rafferty

Superintendent of Public Instruction and Director of Education

I am pleased to have this opportunity to congratulate the members of the 1966 graduating class of the California School for the Deaf for having attained a highly important educational goal. The time you have devoted to your studies will be of inestimable value in all your future endeavors, for our society is one in which education is essential. And we can be sure that the value of knowledge will always be great, for our nation is constantly endeavoring to develop the best of its resources. Its expenditures for education make it apparent that the greatest of these resources is people—all people—but especially the youth.

I hope that every member of your class will continue his education in some way. Certainly, the best way would be to continue in some phase of the educational programs that are offered by California schools. These programs are sufficiently broad that each of you can find in them the type of learning you will need to attain any objective you may set for yourself. I believe that you have an unlimited opportunity to prepare yourself for any vocation you may choose. I know that you will be successful in securing the required preparation if you decide to do so.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) MAX RAFFERTY

Dr. Francis W. Doyle

Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction
Chief, Division of Special Schools and Services

On behalf of the Department of Education, I wish to congratulate members of the Senior Class on the completion of their studies at the California School for the Deaf, Berkeley. We know that each of you has put forth much effort for many years, and we are proud of your accomplishments.

Some of you will be continuing your academic education, and others of you will prepare for the world of work. In either case, you will find that your present education will give you a good start toward becoming useful citizens of your respective communities, but you will also discover that you must continue to learn everything possible about the vocation or profession you choose to follow. We feel certain you will meet your new challenges with perseverance.

The extent to which you demonstrate the ability of the deaf to become valuable employees will in great part determine the opportunities afforded future graduates of your school.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) F. W. DOYLE

DEDICATION

The Graduating Class of 1966 gratefully dedicates the Senior Number to the following members of our staff who are retiring after long years of service to our school:

Miss Grace Matulich

Miss Grace Matulich completed nearly twenty-seven years of teaching at this school before her retirement in early 1966. She is a graduate of San Francisco State College and received her training to teach the deaf at the California School for the Deaf, Berkeley. Before beginning her teaching career here, she taught two years in the Iowa School for the Deaf, and two years at the Alice Birney School in San Diego.

During her years of dedicated service at CSD she taught both junior high and high school classes, and for several years assumed extracurricular duties as high school librarian.

We wish her a pleasant and healthful retirement.

Mrs. Elma Hetzel

In Mrs. Hetzel, the California School for the Deaf, Berkeley, has had for sixteen years a counselor known for her versatility, dedication, and thoroughness.

The manner in which she took a personal interest in the children should be emulated by those who follow her.

Though we wish her a happy retirement, we sadly realize her absence will be a loss for our school and our students.

Mr. Sheldon McArtor

Mr. McArtor is retiring after thirty years as a teacher of shoe repair and leather arts at the California School for the Deaf, Berkeley. His devotion and loyalty to his calling as a teacher of the deaf are exemplified by the fact that he has not missed a day of teaching since September 1, 1936—the date of his appointment. His gratification of a job well done comes through the knowledge that many deaf men earn their livelihood by the craft which he taught them. Hundreds of other people's lives have been enriched through knowing Sheldon McArtor—a gentleman.

Mrs. Gertrude Gamblin

Prior to her retirement on April 1, 1966, Mrs. Gamblin was a dedicated, conscientious counselor who gave of her time and skills in a most professional manner.

The experience and insight of her eighteen years of service will be sorely missed next year. To Mrs. Gamblin go the best wishes of the counseling staff for an active and happy retirement.

Mrs. Dorothy Pruff

Mrs. Dorothy Pruff, a native of New York, received her early education in New Jersey. Her family moved to Berkeley, where she graduated from Berkeley High School and the University of California.

As Dorothy Nation, she spent three years as a counselor in Willard Hall at CSD before leaving to take the teacher training course at the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf.

After teaching at the New Jersey School for the Deaf for fifteen years, she returned to CSD where she has completed nineteen years of dedicated service in the Elementary Department. Mrs. Pruff has our best wishes for a happy retirement.

To The Class of 1966

Dr. Hugo F. Schunhoff
Superintendent

June 12 is your Graduation Day. Graduation indicates that you have completed your program of studies. We hope that each of you has done his very best, arriving at the graduation platform with the best preparation which this school has afforded. June 12 is also your Commencement Day. Commencement means beginning. It is the beginning of new responsibilities, of important decisions, of a college education, of further vocational training, of taking your place in the world of work and in the community in which you choose to live.

Congratulations to you as graduates and our very best wishes to you for a happy and successful future.

HUGO F. SCHUNHOFF

Mr. Myron A. Leenhouts
Assistant Superintendent for Instruction

My warm congratulations to each of you upon this happy occasion of your graduation; and my very sincere wishes for a happy and worthwhile future. We realize that the preparation for this exciting day has required the investment of many years of hard work and planning not only by you, but also by your parents, teachers, counselors, and all the other staff members of this school.

It is our hope that your future life will reflect the objectives of your school — that you will be inspired to seek something finer than culture, something rarer than competence, something nobler than success.

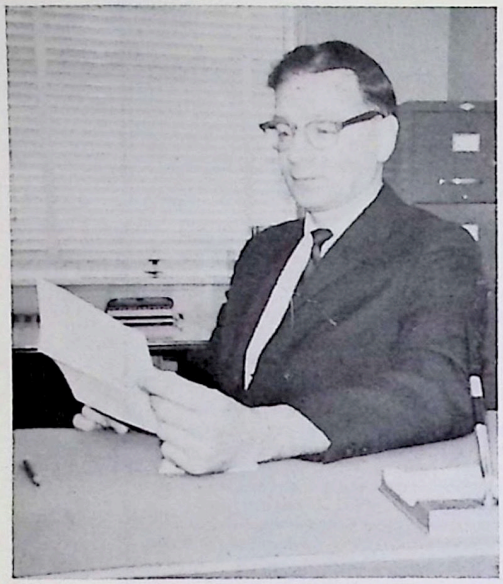
HIGH SCHOOL DEPARTMENT



Graduation time is really a beginning time. For some of you, there is the beginning of a college life—exciting ideas, different people, and new challenges. For others of you, there is the beginning of a work world—serious responsibilities, individual judgments, and different challenges.

For all of you, it is the beginning of your most exciting years. You should have a fresh, open mind about the world, for it constantly changes. You should develop good basic habits to overcome your hearing loss; you must do your best. You should continue your education whether it be college courses or adult education classes. Lifelong learning is available. Never again will you have such a fresh start; make it good.

Your teachers and I, at this beginning, want to wish you full and happy years.

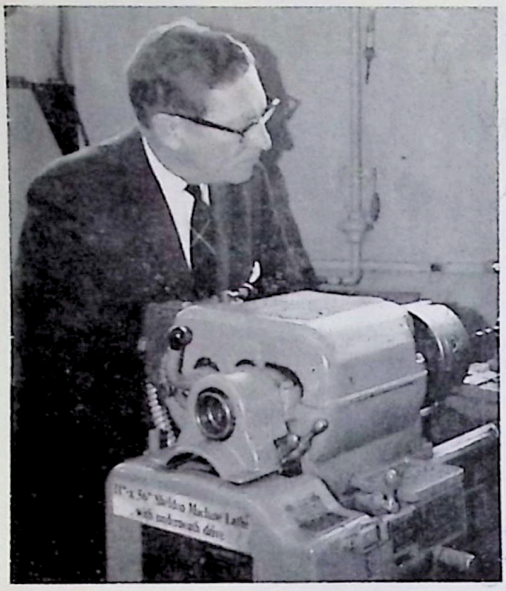
VOCATIONAL DEPARTMENT



Another school year has come and gone, and another group of fine students is leaving our school—graduating. Completion of your studies at the California School for the Deaf marks the end of one phase of each of your lives. But it is not really an end; it is a beginning. It is a time of your entering the adult world where you will have added privileges and added responsibilities. We hope the lessons you have learned at the California School for the Deaf will help you choose the privileges wisely and accept your responsibilities cheerfully.

I shall miss each one of you, and I wish you good health and good fortune.

JUNIOR HIGH DEPARTMENT

The years fly by so quickly; Mary, Kathy, John, and Phillip—all young men and women now. We, your former teachers, can recall when you were with us not too many years ago. We hope that we aided you in overcoming some of the troublesome times you encountered during those early teen-age years.

It gives us a sense of pride and accomplishment when we observe you who are graduating this year. Our sense of pride and accomplishment comes to us as a result of your growth and development into poised, self-confident, young men and women.

Keep your heads up high—showing your pride, but apply humility.
Keep your shoulders straight—showing you are not afraid, but don't domineer.
Keep your nose to the grindstone, for too much idle time leads to wasted time.

I expect a lot from you next year!

RESIDENCE STAFF

Jacob Arcanin

After long years in school, you have now earned your graduation. This is your first step into the adult world. Now you will be required to assume responsibility for yourselves, to work on your own, and to be mature and dependable.

For this first step leading to graduation, you have had the help of dedicated counselors and teachers. For your next steps—college, job, marriage—you will not have as much help. We counselors sincerely hope you have learned well your lessons of responsibility and maturity. Your success or failure in life will depend on those lessons.

To each and every one of you, the counselors and I wish you happiness, peace, and success.

THE COUNSELORS

SUPPORTING SERVICES

Congratulations on completing a big step on the road of life, one which we feel and hope you will fondly remember in years to come. Now we can look forward to seeing many of you as "alumni" when you visit the school.

All of the employees of the school have worked hard to provide a second "home" for you and to teach you many of the things you will need to know for future sucess. It is up to you alone to make good use of the knowledge you have acquired. I wish for each of you everything that is good in your future endeavers.
